

WHAT IS CLAIMED:

1. A method for sensing molten metal height in a feeding launder, comprising the steps of:

5

electro-optically determining the location of a portion of the launder and the molten metal surface, and determining from said launder portion and said metal surface location the height of said metal in said launder.

10